Verdict of Murder in the Second Degree Against Steffani --- Paoli Acquitted.

BUSINESS IN THE OTHER COURTS.

The possibility of a new issue of inconvertible paper I regard with amazement and anxiety, and, in my judgment, such an issue would be a detriment and a shame.—CHARLES SUMNER.

In the United States Circuit Court yesterday Judge Nathaniel Shipman rendered his decision in the case of the United States vs. Joseph Black and the sum of $13.111 60 on a distiller's bond. The decision of the Judge is that a distiller is bound by the assessment made by the Internal Revenue Assessor until a suit is brought in his own behalf to recover the amount after he has paid it; that where the principal does not pay the amount the bond the security occupies the position of his principal, and must pay the tax, so that the payment cannot be regarded as voluntary, and that the assessment must be considered conclusive as to its amount where the government sues a party for the recovery of internal revenue taxes. Judgment must be entered for the government for the amount claimed.

The President has granted a pardon to Leander Fox and Byron Fox, who were convicted, some time since, in the United States Circuit Court, before Judge Benedict, and sentenced each to one year's imprisonment and a fine of $500, for sending obscene books through the mail. The pardon states that, on paying the fine and the costs of prosecution, the defendants shall be discharged from custody. Paul Christensen, of No. 88 Amity street, wa charged yesterday before Commissioner Shields selling cigars without paying the special tax required by law. The defendant gave ball to appear for examination. James Rogers is another in the list of those hav ing an interest in the property of Henry W. Genet. Upon application made in his behalf an attachment was yesterday granted against the estate o the absent "Harry" by Judge Dononue, of the Su-

THE HARROLD HOMICIDE.

Steffant Found Guilty of Murder in the Second Degree and Sentenced to State Prison for Life-Paoli Acquitted.

The trial of the Italians, Pietro Steffani and Sargenti Paoii, for the alleged murder of Michael Harrold, was resumed yesterday in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, Judge Brady on the bench. Additional testimony was given for the defence, but refering solely to the character of the prisoners-Alexandro Philippini, clerk at Deimonico's, examined by Mr. H. C. Dennison, testified that he knew Steffani to be of a very peaceable character. Chas Rosetti, Pietro Giovanni, Franco Piazzi, Jacomo Catanio, José Ramelli and Tomaso Petnamini gav similar testimony. Pietro Giovanni was recalled. and stated, in addition, that he had seen the de ceased in possession of a knife and pistol. This closed the case for the defence. The prosecution put in evidence of the peaceable character of Harrold, and this closed the case on both sides.

Mr. Charles W. Brooke proceeded to sum up for the defence. He said the facts were few and simple, and he began by discussing the grade of guilt applicable to the evidence. He contended that the desendants were not guilty of the highest grade of murder. There was no desiberation in the kining. It was done in the heat of passion. As to Paoil he claimed that there was no evidence Paoli he claimed that there was no evidence against him.

Mr. Phelps replied on behalf of the prosecution?

He commented on the savage nature of the assault;

Paoli down under Harrold, but in no danger, no blows struck by Harrold, and Steffani, fixing his knile, with a blade six inches long, rushing at Harrold and stabbing him five times in the neck and back.

The intent was an important element, to be determined from the circumstances, the relation of the parties to each other, the weapon used, the number of wounds indicated and the part of the body wounded. The jury retired at a few minutes to six and after about an hour and a half came into Gourt again and rendered a verdict of murder in the second degree against Stefani, with a recommendation to mercy, and acquitted Sargenti Paoh.

Mr. Phelps then moved for judgment on the verdict, and said though there was no discretion in the sentence which the Court should pronounce, the recommendation of the jury would be communicated to the proper parties.

Mr. Brooke applied for delay in passing sentence on the usual grounds until Monday.

Mr. Phelps argued that there might be some difficulty, as the new term commenced on Monday.

Judge Brady then ordered the prisoners to rise, and in answer to the usual interrogatories by Mr. Sparks, the Clerk, Stefani said he is twenty-three years of age, a waiter, last resided at No. 223 South Fifth avenue, and had nothing to say why sentence should not be pronounced.

Judge Brady in passing sentence said:—"A jury, a very intelligent cody of gentlemen, have conscientiously discharged their duty and found you guity of murder in the second degree, the punishment for which, without discretion of the Court, is imprisonment for life. The recommendation of the jury will be presented to the Executive. You are sentenced to State Prison for life."

Paoli was then discharged on the application of Mr. Brooke.

ESSEX MARKET POLICE COURT. A Female Pocket Picker.

Before Judge Otterbourg. Yesterday alternoon Judge Otterbourg committed Mary Harrison on a charge of picking the pocket of Mrs. Sophia Fisher, a poor and aged German woman. It appears that as Mrs. Fisher was coming out of one of the large dry goods houses on Grand street the prisoner, Mary Harrison, brushed against her, and, thrusting her hand into the old woman's pooker, abstracted the pocketbook, which contained $1 10, a small amount, but the old woman's fortune. Mary Harrison strongly denied any knowledge of the purse or money, but nevertheless the Judge thought fit to hold her for examination.

ALLEGED LOTTERY SWINDLE.

A Pretended Masonic Relief Association Broken Up.

Three men, calling themselves Boyce Callard, Montrose Bermas and Henry Hudson, were ar-rested yesterday atternoon by Detectives Williamson, Von Gerichten and Dunn, charged with keeping a lottery game and obtaining money under They were conducted to the Central Office of Police, arraigned before Cantain Irving and locked up. The arrest was made at room No. 25, in the building No. 80 Broadway, where the offices of the association were situated. A warrant from Justice Morgan, issued upon the affidavit of Detective Dunn, who bought a lottery ticket of the prisoners, was the instrument of arrest, For some time past these men have been advertising extensively in the daily journals and by circulars that a "Grand Gift Concert" in aid of the Masonic Relief Association of Norfolk, Va., would be given on the 5th of May. At this concert the circulars and advertisements promised that "$250,000 in currency would be given away;" and the saie of tickets has, in consequence, been very large. Being suspicious that the business was a swinding one, and was being carried on contrary to the laws of the State, Captain Irving detailed Detective Dunn to watch the place. The officer's report confirmed the suspiciou, and the arrest was cecided on yesterday. When brought to the Detective Office the chief promoter of the scheme produced a copy of the transactions of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons in the State of Virginia, in which the Grand Master sanctions the giving of a concert for the purpose of raising a Masonic temple at Norloik. Ten thousand gitts were promised by the advertisements. The prisoners For some time past these men have been adverpromised by the advertisements. The prisoners will be arraigned at the Tombs Police Court this
